BT presents 50 prominent and upcoming CA firms in India

Finance and accounting are the backbone of business organizations. Chartered Accountants, therefore, play a vital and influential role in the smooth running of the corporate sector. They are in fact strategists, business advisors and forefront administrators. Other than the four top international accounting firms – Pricewaterhouse-Coopers (PwC), Ernst & Young (E&Y), KPMG and Deloitte – there are several Indian CA firms which are doing commendable work and acting as vital cogs in the national economic wheel. In recognition of the role of Chartered Accountants as managers of the financial recourse in India, Bureaucracy Today in this Special CA Edition highlights some prominent and upcoming CA firms. The listing is not an advertisement of any form for any CA firm and firms listed are not superior to one another. The order is also random and does not suggest the superiority of one over others. The purpose of the survey is to make Bureaucracy Today readers aware of the prominent and upcoming CA firms in India. We have taken prior consent of the firms before publishing their clients' names.

With India introducing major economic reforms in the early 1990s, the country cast off the elements of its closed economy and State-driven policy and opened itself to international markets. Today, India is one of the fastest growing economies in the world and is all poised to play an influential role in the international forum. There is a palpable sense of confidence among Indian business leaders.

The highly competitive and dynamic private sector in India has long been the backbone of the country's economic activity and offers huge scope for foreign direct investment, joint ventures and collaborations. And this is where the Chartered Accountants play their part.

To highlight the vital role the Chartered Accountants play in business in India, Bureaucracy Today initiated the country's first
